

Theme for July: Desire

Sunday, July 1, 11:00 a.m. Platform

“Learning to Live & Love in the Farthest Spaces of Our Hearts”; Victoria Price

Music: Ann Zhang, piano

“Let my heart put aside every desire, so that my heart grows used to its farthest spaces. Better that it live fully aware, in the terror of its stars, than as if protected, soothed by what is near”—Rainer Maria Rilke.

Scientists say we live in an infinitely expanding universe—an idea that they also say our human minds are incapable of comprehending. Essentially, infinity scares the heck out of us. Which is how desire—the yearning for something or someone—became the gasoline in the motor of humanity, filling the empty tanks of our fears and fueling everything from global economies to our most intimate moments.

Taking inspiration from poetry as well as experiences from her own life, Rev. Victoria Price asks us to consider whether this limited view of desire has blinded us to the possibility of a life-changing dialogue with Infinite Love in the farthest spaces of our hearts.

Victoria Price brings her unique story to the national and international stage as an author, inspirational speaker, blogger, designer, artist and art consultant, and interspiritual and interfaith minister.

Victoria's popular blog, Daily Practice of Joy, chronicles her journey back to joy that began in 2011, the year in which the world celebrated the 100th birthday of her father, Vincent Price, with Vincentennial celebrations around the globe.

In 2016, after living in Santa Fe, New Mexico, for a quarter century, Victoria embarked on an ongoing journey of intentional homelessness, chronicled in her new inspirational memoir, The Way of Being Lost: A Road Trip to My Truest Self. Her critically-acclaimed biography of her father, Vincent Price: A Daughter's Biography, was published in 1999 by St Martin's Press and 2014 by Open Road Media.

Sunday, July 8, 11:00 a.m. Platform

“When You Wish Upon a Star: What We All Truly Desire”; Kendra Holliday

Music: Leah Haynes, violin

What makes desire healthy or not? How does society shame us about our healthy desires? How can we ethically pursue our desires? Kendra Holliday explores the various facets of what we yearn for, and how we can find balance in pursuing our passions.

Kendra Holliday is a sex-positive activist and co-founder of Sex Positive St

Louis, a not-for-profit organization whose mission is to provide safe spaces for adults to connect with like-minded people, obtain accurate sex ed, and explore their sexuality. Her blog is The Beautiful Kind, and her professional consulting site is

Sunday, July 15, 11:00 a.m. Platform “Getting What You Want”; James Croft, Outreach Director Music: Nicholas Susi, piano

Many of us have an uncomfortable relationship with our own desires. We all want things, but sometimes we are nervous or bashful to express them, fearing what others might think. Sometimes, we simply don't know how to get what we want. In this Platform we will explore how we can understand, articulate, and achieve our desires—without any self-help nonsense.

Sunday, July 22, 11:00 a.m. Platform TBA Music: James Farquhar, cello and Young Oh, piano

Sunday, July 29, 11:00 a.m. Platform “Our Dark Desires”; James Croft, Outreach Director Music: Kelly Wells and Ryan Spearman

Not everything we want is something we should want. Sometimes, we have less control over our desires than we would like. And sometimes, we've been told our desires are wrong, when in fact they are not. How can we deal with our dark desires, those things we want but think we shouldn't? Why do we want things which hurt us? Where can we find help?

Strategic Planning Task Force - Call for Volunteers

The Board is constituting a Strategic Planning Task Force to help chart a course for the future of the Ethical Society and we need your help! We're looking for Ethical Society members who have passion for the Society and who would like to serve the community by working on the Strategic Planning Task Force. The task force will use diverse methods to reach out to the membership, solicit feedback about how the Ethical Society might live its mission and what goals the Ethical Society might achieve in the years to come, and draft a long-term plan for the Society. The task force time frame is August 2018 – May 2019. Every member of the Society will have an opportunity to provide feedback about the Society's direction during that time frame. Right now, we're calling for Ethical Society members to consider joining the Strategic Planning Task Force. If you are a member and might be interested in joining the Strategic Planning Task Force, please contact Krystal White or Matthew Hile or email PlanningTaskForce@ethicalstl.org to talk further about this opportunity to serve the Ethical Society.

SEEK and Summer Sunday Childcare

SEEK celebrated the end of the 2017-18 program year at the end of May. We have so many of you to thank for helping to create a challenging and inspiring year for all our kids! Childcare will be available throughout the summer on Sundays from 9:45 a.m. until noon in our nursery/preschool and downstairs for elementary-aged kids. Special summer programs are also in the works! To learn what we're up to year round, stay in touch with SEEK on Facebook.

9:45 Forum on July 15 - Workshop on How to Respond to Racism

Have you ever heard someone make a racist comment and you wanted to say something but didn't know how to respond in the moment? The 9:45 Forum on Sunday, July 15 is designed to help you in those situations. The moderator will pose various comments and situations and, during the Forum, our community members will practice verbal and non-verbal responses. Our goals are for everyone to walk away with at least one line that they'd feel comfortable using in a situation and for us all to feel better prepared to respond to racism next time. Presented by the End Racism Team; please contact Krystal White with questions.

9:45 Forum on July 29 - Knife Skills, Oscar-Nominated Documentary

What does it take to build a world-class French restaurant? What if the staff is almost entirely men and women just out of prison? What if most have never cooked or served before, and have barely two months to learn their trade? Knife Skills follows the hectic launch of EDWINS restaurant in Cleveland, Ohio. In this improbable setting, with its mouthwatering dishes and its arcane French vocabulary, we discover the challenges of men and women finding their way after their release from prison. We come to know three trainees intimately, as well as the restaurant's founder, who is also dogged by his past. The film is 40 minutes long, leaving time for discussion.

Board Bulletin

The 2018–19 Ethical Society Board of Trustees has been hard at work in May and June as we get settled into the new year. Main highlights since the Annual Meeting include the New Trustee Orientation, the Inaugural Board Retreat where we established Board goals for the year, and beginning the Strategic Planning Task Force. In addition, the entire Society has goals for this upcoming year too and they focus on retaining our recently joined members, developing leadership skills within the membership, making the Society's building and programs more accessible for individuals with disabilities, developing and following safety and protection protocols, and increasing overall satisfaction with SEEK. The entire membership works together to meet these goals and the Board thanks you for your hard work in making the Ethical Society a better place!

We have an additional thank you to the membership: Most families sustained their prior pledge giving, and almost 100 member households increased their pledge amount this year; these total pledges provided the funds for Society staff raises. Thank you for your generosity!

Upcoming Science Fiction Book Club Meetings, 4th Mondays

The Ethical Society Science Fiction Book Club meets 4th Mondays, 7-8:30 p.m., in Kate Lovelady's office. All are welcome to any meeting, even if you haven't finished the book.

July 23. All Systems Red by Martha Wells. Host: Aaron Tidball.

You can also find information on the Ethical Society Science Fiction Book Club on Facebook.

Member News

Please welcome our newest member:

Raji Laxman is an IT professional whose interests are Star Trek, music, reading, travel, philosophy and neuroscience. She is joining to be a part of an open-minded, humanist group working toward the betterment of society.

TWA Talk—No Meetings in July

There is no TWA in July. Stay cool, ladies!

The Tuesday Women's Association (TWA) meets in the Becker Room

(except where noted) on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. until after noon, August through June. After the morning programs, all are invited to stay for a brown-bag lunch followed by news of members, roundtables, and/or mah jongg at 12:30 p.m.

Men's Discussion Group, Tuesday Mornings—No Meetings in July or August

There is no Men's Group in July or August. Stay cool, gentlemen!

Each Tuesday from 10 a.m. until noon the Men's Forum gathers in the Hanke

Room—the first hour a formal program is presented, followed by a general meeting, and participants are invited to stay after noon for a brown-bag lunch. All are welcome, whether a member of the Ethical Society or not. Just bring an open mind and a small cash donation for the hot drinks and doughnuts that are usually available.

Ethicyclists Ride for July

Join other Ethicyclists for our July bicycle ride on Saturday, July 14. We will meet at 8:45 a.m. at the Kirkwood Community Center, 111 S. Geyer Rd. Park in back along the west side of the parking lot. We will leave at 9 a.m. Our path will take us east from Kirkwood Park through both Kirkwood and Webster Groves. Then we will travel into Shrewsbury to join the River Des Peres Gateway Trail, which we will follow to the River City Casino Trail. After a rest stop in Jefferson Barracks Park, we will pass through some neighborhoods to connect with Grant's Trail, which will lead us back to Kirkwood for lunch. The trip will be 26 miles (taking the shortcuts on this cue sheet). Don't forget to bring water, an extra tube, sunscreen, your helmet [if you use one— editor], and a snack if you like. If the weather is expected to exceed 90 degrees, an email will be sent to the Ethicyclists list and the ride will be postponed week-by-week until we find a more temperate Saturday. To add your name to the email list, contact David Brown (david@thebrowngreens.com or cell: 314-703-6945).

Summer Khaki Pants Drive for Gateway HS

The Ethical Society has adopted the St. Louis City magnet high school Gateway STEM. This summer we will again be helping with their annual summer khaki pants drive. Gateway has a uniform dress code and all the students must wear khakis. New or gently used pants would be greatly appreciated; smaller adult sizes are particularly needed: women's 1-6 and men's 29-34. Any kind of khakis will be accepted, but the cargo style are preferred. If you are donating gently used pants, make sure they are clean. A collection box will be available in the downstairs lobby through August. Thank you!

July's Ethical Edge Topic: The Ethics of Shopping

How can we be ethical consumers? Is it even possible? The complexities of making responsible purchasing decisions can seem overwhelming: Who made the goods? How were they treated? What are the goods made of?

What is the environmental impact of the item? How about the impact of its transportation to you? And how about the company's political donations and domestic worker policies? Explore all these questions and more in a friendly, facilitated environment, Thursday, July 19, at 6:30 p.m. at Café Ventana (3919 W. Pine Blvd). Food and drink are available to purchase from the café, so come eat and discuss!

More End Racism Activities for July

End Racism Discussion Group, Monday, July 16. Join us at 7 p.m. in the Hanke Room to discuss Trevor Noah's memoir Born a Crime: Stories from a South African Childhood, which details his childhood in apartheid South Africa; the importance of family and particularly his mother; and the intersections of race, poverty, religion, violence, education, and opportunity and their effects on his life. His story is funny, poignant, and inspirational. Note: The audiobook is narrated by Trevor and comes highly recommended.

Black Lives Matter Vigil, Sunday, July

8. Every second Sunday, Society members and friends gather on Clayton Road to uphold the dignity and worth of every person and support the movement for black lives. Join us July 8 at noon for fifteen minutes or stay for the full hour. We have signs and sunscreen to share. All ages are welcome.

All-Society "One Book" Summer Project—Becoming Ms. Burton

The Ethical Society End Racism Team invites you to participate in a community-wide reading of Becoming Ms. Burton: From Prison to Recovery to Leading the Fight for Incarcerated Women, by Susan Burton and Cari Lynn. Based on the One Book concept promoted by local libraries and communities, we encourage members and friends of the Society to read the book over the summer and then participate in book discussions and other community activities during the late summer and early fall.

The End Racism Team's goal is to promote learning and community engagement on an issue that affects so many on a local, regional, and national level. Susan Burton says it best herself, "Telling your story is transformative. For both the storyteller and their audience, a new bridge to understanding is created."

If you wish to participate, please complete reading the book by September 16. Use the link <https://www.left-bank.com/book/9781620972120> to receive a 20% discount from Left Bank Books!

Questions? Please reach out to members of the End Racism Team at ethicalstl-end-racism@googlegroups.com.

International Relations Discussion Group in July: Turkey

The International Relations Discussion Group, facilitated by member Roy Overmann, is now meeting on the last Monday of each month at 7 p.m. in the Hanke Room. The group is following the Great Decisions Program of the Foreign Policy Association. The topic for July 30 is "Turkey: A Partner in Crisis."

Save the Date: Ethics in Action Award 2018, Sunday Platform, October 7

The Ethical Society's 2018 Ethics in Action Award ceremony will be presented at Platform on October 7 to Jorge Riopedre. He is President of Casa de Salud, which brings physical and mental health benefits to uninsured members of our community, especially immigrant communities. Casa de Salud is located at 3200 Chouteau. Jorge Riopedre has built the institution by arranging for collaborations and contributions from various organizations (including both St. Louis University and Washington University), agencies, and individuals, and enlisting the help of many volunteers including doctors and other health care professionals.

By coincidence, on June 11, a front-page article appeared in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch celebrating the addition of mental health services to the clinic's offerings: see bit.ly/2HDmeBT.

Around the Building

Man of Steel. Thanks to Ron Wirts for using his welding skills to make some adjustments on a stainless steel HVAC strainer basket. Perfect fit!

Midway. July marks the halfway point of the Adopt-A-Garden commitment. All the adopted gardens and mulched areas are looking great! Thanks to all our volunteers for taking on an area and committing to keep it weed-free April through September. If you're not an Adopt-A-Garden volunteer and curious about the program, there's a map and information on the bulletin board downstairs near the kitchen.

Art ID'd. Thanks to the Aesthetics

Team, plaques now identify the artwork in the Hanke Room. Another new plaque beautifully interprets the tapestry hanging in the west stairwell. The artwork never looked so good.

A big THANK YOU to Bradley Shutes for volunteering to cover a vacationing Debbie Bernett's duties downstairs before and after Platform on Sunday, June 10, and for the TWA & Men's Group meetings on Tuesday, June 12. Both days entail a lot of work setting up including chairs, making gallons of coffee, and all the clean-up required afterward. Well done, Bradley!

One by One. Many of our wooden doors are receiving much-needed TLC from Kent Forrest. One door at a time, Kent is removing years of grime and applying conditioner to bring out their natural beauty.

We've got lots of projects that need taking care of around the building. Check out the bulletin board outside the kitchen downstairs. Read a brief description of several little projects and choose one that's right for you. Some odd jobs would be downright fun to do with a friend or two. Like to help? Contact Facility Coordinator Kitt Rogers (krogers@ethicalstl.org or 991-0955 x 211).

Operation Food Search Project Update

Thanks for your continued contributions to our non-perishable food collection. The blue Operation Food Search barrel remains in the downstairs hallway by the elevator awaiting your donations. Our latest delivery of 66 pounds of food brought our to-date gifts to those with food insecurity in our community by 785 pounds! We've helped feed nearly 200 people for a day with our donations. Many thanks to Gayle Rose for her work on this project.

Upcoming Members' Art Show—Apply Now to Share Your Work!

The Ethical Society is planning a members' holiday art show from December 16, 2018, to January 21, 2019. Society member artists who are interested in participating in the show, please send photos of your paintings, drawings, photography, or mixed media work to Judy Lazarus (ilynnlaz15@gmail.com) or Jane Schaefer (janeschaefer79@gmail.com). We may have room for several pieces from each artist depending on how much interest there is. Some of the work will be available for purchase. The Art Exhibits Team looks forward to your responses.

Committee of Concern

When you or a family member is ill or experiencing tough times, a call from a concerned friend means so much. Whether the caller just asks, "How are you doing today?" or offers assistance, you know someone cares. That is what the Committee of Concern does. If you or someone you know is in need of such support, or if you would like to be a part of this caring team, please contact

Jeanette Langton, ethicalstl-coc@yahoogleroups.com;
