

~ OCTOBER'S THEME: WORK FOR JUSTICE ~

Featured Ethical Action for October—Food Drive!

Thanks to the leadership of member Gayle Rose, the Ethical Society has an ongoing food drive for Operation Food Search. In 2017-18 we collected over 800 pounds of food! Yet the need is great. We have a goal for 2018-19 to double our donations. In October we call special attention to the food drive, and suggest some ways to remember it year-round:

- Mark your calendar for First Sunday Lunches, and add a reminder to bring a food donation that day;
- Add “food donation” to your regular grocery shopping list;

- Whenever you think of it, put a can of food by the door or in your car.

Sunday, October 7, 11 a.m. 2018 Ethics in Action Award Ceremony “Actions, Not Words”; Jorge Riopedre, Casa de Salud Music: Mereya Riopedre, harp

Please join us for a special Platform presenting the 2018 Ethical Society of St. Louis Ethics in Action Award to Jorge Riopedre, president and CEO of Casa de Salud, a clinic providing high-quality, low-cost clinical and mental healthcare to the uninsured, focusing on the new immigrant community.

Jorge founded a media production company specializing in the Hispanic market, and then became the executive director of the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Metropolitan St. Louis. He is a 2015 Eisenhower Fellow, having traveled to Germany and Mexico to study the healthcare systems of those countries, and is now president of the Eisenhower Fellowships St. Louis chapter. Jorge co-founded the St. Louis New American Alliance, which provides referral services to foreign-born individuals throughout the region.

Jorge says, “The Internet and social media have made it easy to connect and given us a megaphone to express ourselves on every topic imaginable, and yet our isolation from each other has increased; we seem to be less willing or able to actually do something to drive change. Actions, not words, are what the world needs from us, and what we need for ourselves.”

Split Collection—Half of today’s undesignated* collection will be donated to Casa de Salud. (*If you pay your membership pledge through the collection, write “pledge” on your check, and it will not be divided.)

First Sunday Lunch Reception—After Platform, there will be a free reception in the Becker Room in honor of our awardee. Plan to stay to eat and greet, and we encourage everyone also to bring a food donation for the Big Blue Barrel by the elevators.

Sunday, October 14, 11 a.m. Platform “Are We Making Any Progress on Gun Violence?”; Kate Lovelady, Leader Music: Patrick Rafferty, guitar

The epidemic of gun violence is of deep concern to most Americans. Yet it often seems as if we’re stuck in a cycle of tragedy, “thoughts and prayers; and pollical stalemate. What progress has been made and how might we achieve more?

Sunday, October 21, 11 a.m. Platform “Social Justice Warriors”; James Croft, Outreach Director Music: Drew Gowran, percussion

Culture and politics today are riven with debates about social justice. Black Lives Matter and the #MeToo movement are social justice campaigns which have become international phenomena. At the heart of these movements are so-called “social justice warriors”: people who take to the streets (and their keyboards and phones) to promote their vision of social justice. But what does it mean to be a social justice warrior, and should we become one?

Sunday, October 28, 11 a.m. Platform Special Arts-in-Action Platform—“Dance the Vote”

Dance the Vote is an innovative program that uses dance, spoken word, and poetry to promote voter awareness and encourage voter registration. This selection of short dance pieces and spoken word looks at the history of voting and its significance, especially for African Americans, women, Latinx, and people with disabilities, as well as the wider public.

The Ethical Society is excited to present this arts-positive event to remind people of the importance of voting on November 6 in the midterm 2018 elections and to encourage everyone to help get out the vote.

“In this season of stressful political dialogue, it is empowering to be reminded of how beautiful and necessary voting is, and how much of a community the very act of voting, and making work about voting, can create,” said theatre artist and social activist Joan Lipkin, who founded Dance the Vote. Joan Lipkin. Joan was also 2007 Ethical Humanist of the Year.

Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF at Platform by SEEK students. Help our kids save lives and also learn about global citizenship and the value of helping others. Bring your spare change (or bills) and contribute to the cause when the SEEK children Trick-or-Treat at the beginning of Platform.

Game Night and Dessert Competition, Saturday, October 6, 7 p.m.

Have fun and sample desserts while supporting the Ethical Society! You are invited to bring:

- Games to play;
- A homemade dessert for the competition if you wish to enter (with recipe if you wish to share it);
- Gently-used puzzles to donate to the Puzzle sale;

- Your drink of choice, alcoholic or non-alcoholic. We will provide coffee and tea.

Requested donation: $10 per person for entrance and dessert sampling.

Dessert Competition. There will be 4 categories—cakes, cookies, pies, and misc.—with a prize for each. The judging will be done anonymously...by you!

Adults and young adults only, please—16 and older. For more information please contact Maxine Stone (VeryMaxine@aol.com; 314-963-0280).

Evolution-Themed Zoo Tours for Adults and Children in October and November! Free!

Member Jim Jordan worked at the St. Louis Zoo in Education for 20 years. He is offering two amazing tours to give people of all ages a richer understanding of evolution.

Adult Weekday Tour, Tuesday, October 23, 1-3:30 p.m. “Amazing Animals: Adaptations, Behavior, Compare & Contrast, Diversity & Evolution.” A 2.5-hour Zoo walking tour that explores major tenets of the Ethical Society’s exhibit and forums on evolution and biodiversity. Jim will provide a provocative glimpse into zoology and genetic and species diversity. We will use observations and some background information to form (or change) our understanding of the A, B, C, D, and E’s of animal science. Who knows, you may have a revelation or two about the animal world. Jim will also share some behind the scenes stories of our great zoo. 1.5 mile walk over hilly terrain with a break. Carpool from the Ethical Society and/or meet at the living world north entrance in the lobby. Limit 20 participants. Please RSVP to Jim, ajordan725@sbcglobal.net.

Family Tour, Sunday, November 4. “Amazing Animals: Adaptations, Behavior, Care.” After First Sunday Lunch, go on a 2.5-hour Zoo walking tour to explore the Amazing World of Animals. We will put on our scientist hats, using observations to explore why and how different animals do what they do and are who they are. We will see how our Zoo provides exceptional animal care. Jim will also share “behind the scenes” stories of our great Zoo. 1.5 mile walk over hilly terrain with a break. Carpool from the Ethical Society and/or meet at the living world north entrance in the lobby at 1 p.m.

9:45 Forum on October 7—Justice in Relationship; James Croft

Working for justice alongside others is challenging work, requiring trust, deep relationships, and a commitment to shared values. In this workshop we will explore our personal values and examine how we can connect with others who share them.

9:45 Forum on October 14—Environmental Justice; Trisha Boyle, Sierra Club

The EPA defines Environmental Justice as “the fair treatment and meaningful involvement of all people regardless of race, color, national origin, or income, with respect to the development, implementation, and enforcement of environmental laws, regulations, and policies.” It is usually the most vulnerable populations that suffer most from environmental problems, from pollution to climate change.

How can we not just “save the planet” but make sure we are working for justice at the same time?

9:45 Forum on October 21—The Unpaid Labor Project

The Unpaid Labor Project seeks to recognize the first twelve generations of African-Americans and their vital contributions to our nation, abolish the false ideology of white superiority and black inferiority, and advocate for national racial reconciliation. Clifton Berry and Matthew Foggy, Jr. will share about the Unpaid Labor Project during this Forum. Additional information can be found at www.unpaidlabor.com.

TWA “Trash or Treasure” and Bake Sale, October 14

The Tuesday Women’s Association is having a Trash or Treasure and Bake Sale on Sunday, October 14, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. We have been collecting lots of good things that you can’t live without!

We have pictures, paintings and picture frames, dishes, glassware, pottery and things for your kitchen, toys and dolls, holiday items, purses, etc. We have also been making our famous jams and pickles, and as always, we will have lots of homemade baked goods to eat during coffee hour and while you shop. Start your holiday shopping early. We hope to see everyone there.

Ethical Edge, October 18—Is It Right to Sabotage the President?

Recent reports from anonymous sources inside the White House suggest that officials in the Trump administration are working from within to ensure that certain presidential directives are not followed. These sources describe taking documents off the President’s desk and holding meetings in which the orders of the President are explicitly undermined. Is this ethically right? Under what circumstances is it acceptable to act in this way? And should these officials identify themselves?

Discuss these questions and more in a friendly, facilitated environment, Thursday, October 18, at 6:30 p.m. at Café Ventana (3919 W. Pine Blvd). Food and drink are available to purchase from the café, so come eat and discuss!

Member News

Please welcome our newest members:

Joshua Arnold is U.S. Army Support Coordinator at Boeing. His passions are painting, philosophy, hiking, politics, and ethics. He is joining to be a part of the Ethical Society community.

Patricia Scott is a web designer interested in philosophy, politics, art, reading, gardening, and travel. She is joining to find community with people who are concerned with questions such as “How should I live?” and “What should my contributions be?”

TWA Talk

The Tuesday Women's Association (TWA) meets in the Becker Room (except where noted) on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. until after noon, August through June. After the morning programs, all are invited to stay for a brown-bag lunch followed by news of members, roundtables, and/or mah jongg at 12:30 p.m.

October 2. Book Review of A Piece of the World by Christina Baker Kline; Reviewer: Sherry Schmidt.

October 9. "Sharing America"; Holly Edgell, Editor, St. Louis Public Radio. KWMU has recently started a new Corporation for Public Broadcasting project based out of St. Louis that explores the intersection of race, class, and culture in four cities throughout the country.

October 16. Quarterly Business Meeting.

October 23. "Your Bleeped-up Brain"; Jo-ellen Forrest. We trust our brains to tell true from false, whether it is something we see on TV, read on the internet, or hear from a friend. Using a combination of magic tricks, psychological experiments, and stories from history we'll learn how and why our brain gets it wrong, and we'll learn a few tricks to help us better separate fact from fiction in our daily lives.

October 30. Book Review of children's books. Reviewer: Joyce Best.

Men's Discussion Group, Tuesday Mornings

Each Tuesday from 10 a.m. until noon the Men's Forum gathers in the Hanke Room - the first hour a formal program is presented, followed by a general meeting. Participants are invited to stay after noon for a brown-bag lunch. All are welcome, whether a member of the Ethical Society or not. Just bring an open mind and a small cash donation for the hot drinks and doughnuts that are usually available.

October 2, 10 a.m. "Utopia for Realists Featuring the Ideas of Rutger Bregman"; video, presentation, and discussion. David Baumgartner. 11 a.m. Meet our Members: Dan Ziskind.

October 9, 10 a.m. "International Update of Foreign Policy"; Roy Overmann.

October 16, 10 a.m. "Desire Is in Our DNA"; James Croft.

October 23, 10 a.m. "Whatever Happened to College?"; George Salamon.

October 30, 10 a.m. "Missouri's Wild Mushrooms: But Are They Edible?"; Maxine Stone.

Virtual Travel Club—Mark Your Calendars

The Virtual Travel Club meets 5 Fridays a year at 7 p.m. in the Hanke Room. Presentations for the rest of 2018-19 are: November 9—Claire Sheehan, Japan; January 11—Maxine Stone, Tibet; March 8—Don Beere, Ottawa and Mon-treah; May 10—Matthew Hile, Africa (different countries than the presentation last May).

"We Thinks Good," Philosophy Discussion Group—Bioethics Continues

On the 2nd and 4th Saturday in October, 2–4 p.m., in the Hanke Room, Jason Chen (PhD student in Philosophy at SLU) will lead a workshop on ethical and political philosophy and theory. Each session begins with a presentation, leading into guided discussion. The workshop is designed for newcomers, so don't be shy! The October topics are "The Ethics of Human Research and Clinical Trials" (10/13) and "The Ethics of Abortion" (10/27). You can also keep up with the group on Meetup, <https://www.meetup.com/wethinksgood/>.

Ethicyclists Ride, October 6—From Augusta to Marthasville on the Katy Trail

Enjoy some fresh air, sunshine, exercise, and Humanist fellowship at the final* organized ride of the season. You don't want to miss it! We will meet at the Augusta entrance to the Katy Trail by 9:15 a.m. on Saturday, October 6, and depart at 9:30 a.m. sharp. (Rain date is Saturday, 10/13.) We will proceed west on the Katy trail to Marthasville, then head back to the starting point. The total round trip is about 23 miles. On the return to Augusta, we will stop at the Blumenhof Winery in Dutzow to enjoy lunch and a glass of wine or a soft drink. (Those of us who have tasted their fermented product think it's very good.) They also have a nice shaded patio where we can dine in comfort. This ride will begin where the September ride ended on the Katy Trail. With any luck, we will be able to enjoy some fall colors as well. Don't forget to bring a helmet, a water bottle, an extra tube, sunscreen, and a snack if you like. Questions or concerns? Call or text Kent Krimmel, 314.560.0351. To join the Ethicyclists email list, write Joe Corrigan at japplecorr@att.net.

*We might have one more ride in late October, if folks are interested and the weather is still mild. More to come about that, in a future e-mail to the group.

End Racism News

End Racism Discussion Group, Monday, October 15, 7 p.m. Join us in the Hanke Room to discuss Robin DiAngelo's book White Fragility: Why It's So Hard for White People to Talk about Racism. This book can be a powerful and difficult read. While passages in this book may deviate from some definitions of racism and sometimes evoke defensiveness and anger, it is essential that we, as Humanists, understand the latest racial conversations that are circulating. If you feel uncomfortable while reading this book, grab a notebook and write down your thoughts. "Sit with it" and contemplate, rather than run away or dismiss the feelings you are experiencing. Book discounts are available at Left Bank Books. Facilitator: Kerri Rawson.

Black Lives Matter Vigil, Sunday, October 14, noon. Every second Sunday, Society members and friends gather on Clayton Road to uphold the dignity and worth of every person and support the movement for black lives. Join us for fifteen minutes or stay for the full hour. We have signs and sunscreen to share.

Becoming Ms. Burton, "One Book, One Ethical Society." The End Racism team thanks you for embracing the One Book, One Ethical Society initiative: for reading the book, coming to the platform about it, and/or talking about it at one of the discussion groups. We hope that participating provided you with some common language and shared experiences with fellow members and that you found the experience thought-provoking. Thank you for participating!

Parenting Is Hard. Let's Keep Talking.

Each month, families of kids who are enrolled in our SEEK program are invited to join rich conversations about navigating our roles as parents. We hope that through these conversations we'll gather new inspiration to take on those roles confidently, ethically, and compassionately, and in the process build strong relationships with other families who've made this Ethical Society their spiritual home.

First Sundays, 10-10:50 a.m. Join us for Parent Talk. Guest experts often lead us in discussions on topics such as free-range parenting, processing grief, or understanding gender expression.

Second Sundays, 10-10:50 a.m. Parents are invited to play games while their kids are engaged in SEEK workshops. Because grownups are allowed to play too!

Third Sundays, 10-10:50 a.m. Participate in discussions inspired by parenting articles and books, beginning with Dale McGowan's Parenting Beyond Belief.

Want to suggest a topic or facilitate a Parent Talk, game, or book talk? Contact SEEK Director Rachel Valenti (rvalenti@ethicalstl.org) or Laura Hamper (laura.hamper@gmail.com).

Great Books Discussion Group—Even Deadlier!

Great Books discussion group meets second Tuesdays, 7:30 p.m. in the Hanke Room, through May. October 9, we will discuss the second two selections in the anthology, those on the sin of envy: "K Krakatau" by Jim Shepard and

"Weekend" by Fay Weldon. This year we are using the anthology Even Deadlier, a sequel to The Seven Deadly Sins Sampler. It contains two short stories on each of the seven deadly sins. Buy the anthology through the Great Books Foun- dation or from the Ethical Society office for $20. (Books are on the file cabinets in the office; please place payment in the mailbox of Nancy Jelinek.) For more information please contact Alan Easton. ameast89@yahoo.com.

Upcoming Science Fiction Book Club Meetings, 4th Mondays

The Ethical Society Science Fiction Book Club meets 4th Mondays, 7-8:30 p.m., in Kate Lovelady's office. All are welcome to any meeting, even if you have not finished the book.

October 22. The Sirens of Titan by Kurt Vonnegut, Jr. Host: Bob McMullen.

November 26. The Human Blend by Alan Dean Foster. Host: Cy Henningsen.

You can also find information on the Ethical Society Science Fiction Book Club on Facebook.

Board Bulletin

In September, the Board worked on the goal "Consider the relationship between the Society and the AEU," meeting with AEU Board Secretary Jill Aul, who answered questions about AEU structure, communication, and how we can get involved. The Board also finalized a Donor Recognition Plan and Acceptance of Gifts Policy; many thanks to David Brown, Joe Corrigan, Andy Stanton, and Krystal White for their hard work crafting these documents. Lastly, the Board allocated funds from the Charitable Gift Annuities residuum to improve building accessibility. The Strategic Planning Task Force (Matthew Hile, Rachel Jones, Kate Lovelady, Mary Murphy-Overmann, George Salamon, and Brian Vandenberg), are soliciting feedback about the future direction of the Society. Please respond to their survey and share what you view to be the priorities for the Ethical Society in these coming five years. Thank you for devoting thoughtful time to this process.

Around the Building

The Hip Bone's Connected to the .... We have two new storage cabinets for our maintenance supplies thanks to the efforts of handy members Chuck Gallagher, Kent Forrest, and Bradley Shutes.

Last Call. As summer comes to an end so does the third season of the Adopt-A-Garden program. Before you hang up your garden gloves, please take one last look at your adopted spot and pull out those end-of-season weeds. Many thanks to the volunteers who committed to keeping their adopted spot weed-free this growing season: Kent Krimmel, Ed Schmidt, Nancy Burgess, Gena Gardiner, Chuck Gallagher, Maxine Stone, Nancy Borders-Wing, Norm Eisenberg, Steve Harris, Jim Rhodes, Stephanie Sigala, the Draney family, Ann Eggebrecht, Kelly Erwin, the Steinbach family, Jane Schaefer, Samantha White, Sharon Poe, and the Whompton (White/Compton) family.

Interested in helping with our building and grounds? We can put your talents to good use. If you have an hour or two and would like to take on a minor project please contact Facility Coordinator Kitt Rogers (krogers@ethicalstl.org; 314-991-0955 x 211).

Save the Date / Consider Becoming a Legacy Friend

Mark your calendars for an evening of food and fun! All Legacy Friends (people who have made a long-term financial commitment to the Ethical Society) are invited to a thank-you and recognition event on November 10 at 6 p.m. in the Becker Room. This event will be more fun with you! If you are thinking about becoming a Legacy Friend and/or if you have included the Society in your estate plan or as a beneficiary, now is a good time to talk to a member of the Legacy Committee: Joe Corrigan, Jim Rhodes, Steve Harris, David Brown, or Krystal White. Thank you for your contributions to the Ethical Society!

2018-19 Ethicurean Dinners Begin in October!

Ethicurean dinners are potlucks in members' homes, held four times a year in October, January, April, and July. Almost 90 Society members and friends already participate. The October dinners are almost full but there are a few places left.

To get on the list for future dinners, contact Andie Jackson (andrea.jackson568@gmail.com) with the following information: your name(s), email address, and phone; your preferred day (Friday, Saturday, or Sunday); your impossible day(s) if any; and whether you'd be willing to host once a year. (You won't be asked to host for your first dinner.)

Science Enthusiasts Club in October—Climate Change Facts

The Science Enthusiasts Club is for anyone interested in scientific discoveries and their impact on society. You don't have to be a scientist to be part of the discussion, just to love science! We meet 3rd Tuesdays at 7 p.m. The topic for October 16 is "The Science of Global Climate Change: What Are the Facts?" For more information, to join the email list for monthly readings, or to suggest topics, contact Rich Feldenberg, richard.feldenberg@health.slu.edu.

Ethical Society Gallery: A Retrospective Featuring the Sharp Shooters

What happens when a group of women artists get together to discuss their photography and critique new work? The Sharp Shooters happen!

This group of dynamic women—Nancy Bridges, Anna Harris, Jo McCredie, Marion Noll, Marianne Pepper, Erica Popp, Joan Proffer, Naomi Runtz, Valerie Snyder, Barbie Steps, Kay Wood, and Barbara Zucker—comprise a contemporary salon, an assemblage of talented artists, who have been meeting and exhibiting their work together in the St. Louis area since 2009.

Coming together with different backgrounds and viewpoints, the Sharp Shooters share a great sense of camaraderie. Their animated discussions are always lively and focus on improving their personal visions. They travel together and individually, exploring the world around us, dedicated to creating photographic art.

The Sharp Shooters are excited to display their favorite pieces of diverse work from the past years, pulled from their years of many shows at local art galleries and universities.

The exhibit opened Friday, September 21, and runs through Sunday, October 28.
